

Cadre Review of the Indian Administrative Service

*391. SHRI KHAGEN DAS: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

- (a) whether there is a system of cadre review of the Indian Administrative Service (IAS);
- (b) whether such a review is mandatory after a gap of five years; and
- (c) by when the next cadre review would take place?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL AND TRAINING AND DEPARTMENT OF PENSIONS AND PENSIONERS WELFARE OF THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE): (a) and (b) Under the Cadre rules pertaining to the Indian Administrative Service, the Central Government is to ordinarily re-examine the strength and composition of the IAS Cadre of each State at an interval of every five years, in consultation with the State Government concerned. Such cadre reviews are not taken up for all the State cadres together, but are done individually for each cadre, based on their requirements and the proposals received from the concerned State Government in this regard.

(c) The dates on which cadre reviews for each State of the IAS cadre were/are due are indicated in the Statement (See below). The Cadre reviews in respect of the AGMUT, Bihar and Jammu & Kashmir cadres have not been completed on the scheduled dates, as necessary proposals from the concerned State Governments/Cadre Controlling Authorities have not yet been received. The reviews will take place on receipt of proposals. Further, with regard to recently constituted States of Uttaranchal, Chhattisgarh and Jharkhand, it has been decided that the next cadre reviews in respect of the IAS cadre of these States would be taken up as and when the concerned State Governments come up with necessary proposals, which may be
